

Description

On the Rates page, the percentage value in the Assumptions text is often mismatched with the Estimated down payment percent.

Reproduce

Login to Better.com as a standard user

Navigate to the Rates page

Click the “Assumptions: Purchasing a $<price>k home in Westbury, NY with <percent>% down...” button

Set the Purchase price to $300,000 and the Estimated down payment to $5,000

Click Update

The percentage in the Assumptions text does not match the percentage in the Estimated down payment field

- The Assumptions text reads: “Assumptions: Purchasing a $300k home in Westbury, NY with 1.67% down...”
- The Estimated down payment has a percentage of 1.7%

Screenshots

The screenshot displays the 'better mortgage corporation' interface. On the left is a dark sidebar with navigation links: Overview, Tasks, Rates, Pre-approval letter, Loan estimate, and My team. The main content area is titled 'The Better Price Guarantee.' and includes a sub-header 'Assumptions: Purchasing a $300k home in Westbury, NY with 1.67% down...'. Below this, there are two input fields: 'Purchase price' set to '$300,000' and 'Estimated down payment' set to '$5,000' with a '17%' percentage. An 'Update' button is at the bottom right. A 'My account' dropdown is visible in the top right corner.

Figure 1 – The Assumptions percent value does not match the Estimated down payment percent value after altering the Purchase price to $300,000 and the Estimated down payment to $5,000.